ORDER OF THE MISSOURI STATE BOARD OF COSMETOLOGY AND BARBER EXAMINERS ISSUING A PROBATIONARY COSMETOLOGY STUDENT LICENSE TO CARRIE JEAN BARNEY

The Missouri State Board of Cosmetology and Barber Examiners (the "Board") hereby issues its ORDER granting a PROBATIONARY COSMETOLOGY STUDENT LICENSE, License No. 2014041704 to Carrie Jean Barney ("Barney" or "Applicant"), pursuant to the provisions of § 324.038, RSMo.[1] As set forth in § 324.038.2, RSMo, Barney may submit a written request to the Administrative Hearing Commission seeking a hearing and review of the Board's decision to issue a probated student license. Such written request must be filed with the Administrative Hearing Commission within 30 days of delivery or mailing of this Order of the Board. The written request should be addressed to the Administrative Hearing Commission, P.O. Box 1557, Truman State Office Building, Room 640, Jefferson City, MO 65102-1557. If no written request for review is filed with the Administrative Hearing Commission within the 30-day period, the right to seek review of the Board's decision shall be considered waived. Should Barney file a written request for review of this Order, the terms and conditions of this Order shall remain in force and effect unless and/or until such time as the Administrative Hearing Commission issues an Order to the contrary.

Based upon the foregoing, the Board hereby states:

[1] All statutory references are to Missouri Revised Statutes 2000, as amended, unless otherwise indicated.

I.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The Board is an agency of the state of Missouri created and established pursuant to § 329.015, RSMo, for the purpose of licensing all persons engaged in the practice of barbering and cosmetology in this state. The Board has control and supervision of the licensed occupations and enforcement of the terms and provisions of Chapters 328 and 329, RSMo.

2. On or about August 22, 2014, Barney applied for a Missouri cosmetology student license to enroll at Hyde Beauty Academy, 3151 Litton Road, Chillicothe, Missouri.

3. On her application, Barney answered "yes" to the question "Have you been adjudicated and found guilty, or entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, in a criminal prosecution in this state, or any or of the United States, whether or not sentence was imposed?"

4. In conjunction with her August 22, 2014 application, Barney provided an explanation of her criminal history. In her explanation, Barney stated that she is incarcerated and serving an eleven year term in prison on a 1st Degree Assault charge. Barney explained that one night she and a male acquaintance were under the influence of alcohol and the man became violent and beat her. She explained further that "in retaliation," she "poisoned the man with Visine." She acknowledged that what she did was wrong and that she should have reported that man to the police. She noted that her upbringing made her fearful of the police but that she now understands that the police "protect us from violent people." Barney stated that she "received 5 years' probation with a 15 year back up." Barney related that she did "almost a year before she absconded to Wyoming due to employment issues." Barney stated that a warrant for her arrest was issued by the state of Missouri and she was eventually sent to prison "for 15 years at 85%."

Barney asserted that her acknowledgement that she is an alcoholic has made her a better person and that she has learned from her mistakes. She noted that she now knows how to avoid confrontation and surround herself with "positive people." Barney noted further that she has "goals, boundaries and confidence in [herself], and that she never had those things before.

5. A review of Barney's Missouri criminal history reveals that on or about June 16, 2003, Barney pled guilty to the class C felony of Assault 1st Degree, in the Circuit Court of Greene County, Missouri, case number 31302CF6438. The Court suspended the imposition of sentence, 15 years' incarceration, and placed Barney on five years' supervised probation and ordered no contact with the victim. On July 9, 2004, the Court revoked her probation and imposed the June 16, 2003 sentence of 15 years' incarceration.

8. As a result of Barney's guilty pleas as detailed in paragraph 5 above, the Board has cause to deny or refuse Barney's application for a cosmetology student license pursuant to § 329.140.1, RSMo, and § 329.140.2(2), RSMo.

9. As an alternative to refusing to issue a license, the Board may, at its discretion, issue a license subject to probation, pursuant to § 324.038, RSMo, which provides:

> Whenever a board within or assigned to the division of professional registration, including the division itself when so empowered, may refuse to issue a license for reasons which also serve as a basis for filing a complaint with the administrative hearing commission seeking disciplinary action against a holder of a license, the board, as an alternative to refusing to issue a license, may, at its discretion, issue to an applicant a license subject to probation.

10. The Board issues this Order in lieu of denial of Barney's application for a cosmetology student license. The Board has determined that this Order is necessary to ensure the protection of the public.
