On or about January 7, 2014, the Administrative Hearing Commission entered its Default Decision in the case of *Missouri Board of Cosmetology and Barber Examiners v. In that Default Decision, the Administrative Hearing Commission found that Respondent Jessica Jones' cosmetology operator license (license # 112977) and her cosmetology establishment license (license # 2007011642) are subject to disciplinary action by the Missouri Board Cosmetology and Barber Examiners ("Board") pursuant to § 329.140.2(5), (6) and (13), RSMo.[1]

The Board has received and reviewed the record of the proceedings before the Administrative Hearing Commission, including the properly pled complaint filed before the Administrative Hearing Commission on October 18, 2013 and the Default Decision of the Administrative Hearing Commission. The record of the Administrative Hearing Commission, including the properly pled complaint and Default Decision, is incorporated herein by reference in its entirety.

Pursuant to notice and § 621.110 and § 329.140.3, RSMo, the Board scheduled a hearing to be held on June 2, 2014, at approximately 9:00 a.m. at the Drury Plaza Hotel Chesterfield, 355

[1] All statutory references are to Missouri Revised Statutes 2000, as amended, unless otherwise indicated.

After being present and considering all of the evidence presented during the hearing, the Board issues the following Findings of Facts, Conclusions of Law and Order

Based upon the foregoing the Board hereby states:

Jessica Jones,* Case No. 13-1812 CB, in its entirety. 2013, that Respondent was personally served with the complaint and that Respondent never filed an answer or otherwise responded to the complaint.

4. In its Default Decision, the Administrative Hearing Commission determined there was cause to discipline Respondent's licenses pursuant to § 329.140.2(5), (6) and (13), RSMo, as established in the properly pled complaint, as a result of Resondent's offering and performing cosmetology services for compensation without holding a valid Missouri license and operating a cosmetology establishment known as Creative Hair Design without a cosmetology establishment license.
