

EXAMINATION RESULTS
NCEES PRINCIPLES AND PRACTICE OF SURVEYING

CONGRATULATIONS IF YOU PASSED THE PRINCIPLES AND PRACTICE OF SURVEYING EXAMINATION:

Upon verification by the Board that all requirements for licensure are complete, you will be licensed as a Professional Land Surveyor. Official notice of your licensure and your Professional Land Surveyor license will be mailed to you in approximately four to six weeks. Please note that if you took the Missouri State Specific examination the results from that examination will be mailed to you separately from the Board.

Please keep the Missouri Board office apprised of any changes in your mailing address to ensure that all correspondence will reach you promptly. All address changes must be made in writing and mailed to the Missouri Board office, or if you prefer you may fax the address change to (573)751-8046 or complete the Change of Address form located on the Board's web site: <https://renew.pr.mo.gov/apelsla-coa2-ask.asp>.

We encourage you to visit the Missouri Board's web site <http://pr.mo.gov/apelsla> to obtain access to valuable and useful information.

IF YOU FAILED THE PRINCIPLES AND PRACTICE OF SURVEYING EXAMINATION:

You are NOT considered approved to register for or attend any future examination until you have rescheduled with the Missouri Board.

If you wish to retake the examination, you may obtain a re-examination application from the following link or links: <http://pr.mo.gov/boards/apelsla2/apelsla/Re-Exam-Request-PLS.pdf> and/or <http://pr.mo.gov/boards/apelsla2/apelsla/Re-Exam-Request-LS-MO-Specific.pdf>. The filing deadline for submitting your re-examination/rescheduling application to the Missouri Board is August 15 for the October exam and February 15 for the April exam. If necessary, an application may also be obtained by contacting the Board office at (573)751-0047. Re-Examination requests received after the indicated deadline will NOT be given consideration for the upcoming examination.

After your re-examination/rescheduling application has been approved by the Missouri Board, it will be necessary for you to register with NCEES for the next examination by accessing the NCEES web site (www.ncees.org) and completing their registration process online. Registrations received after the posted deadline will NOT be given consideration for the examination.

We encourage you to visit the Missouri Board's web site <http://pr.mo.gov/apelsla> and the NCEES web site www.ncees.org to obtain access to valuable and useful information.

Please note that if you took the Missouri State-Specific LS exam the results from that examination will be mailed directly from the Missouri Board office.
