A motion was made by Dr. James and seconded by Dr. Thompson to approve the open session mail ballot minutes of February 29, 2008 and board meeting minutes of March 27, 2008. Motion carried unanimously.

Jurisprudence Examination Update

The executive director reported that the board had received one response from a vendor concerning an online jurisprudence examination. Another company that assists states in developing examinations had responded concerning how question development can be automated allowing individuals formulating the examination questions to send such questions to a data base for board review. The board authorized the executive director to move forward on automating the jurisprudence examination wherever possible and to provide any cost estimates available.

Continuing Education Survey

The board discussed the draft survey questions. A motion was made by Dr. James and seconded by Dr. Madosky to amend the survey questions and proceed with the mailing. Board members voting aye: Dr. James, Dr. Madosky and Dr. Rushin. Board members voting nay: Dr. Thompson, Mr. Nahon, and Dr. Carver. With a tie vote, the motion failed.

After further discussion the board recommended that the additional questions from Dr. Thompson be revised and included in the survey. A motion was made by Dr. Thompson and seconded by Dr. Carver to revise the survey, provide information relating to the regulatory requirements for continuing education, and include a definition of didactic and general study in the cover memorandum to licensees. Board members voting aye: Dr. Thompson, Dr. Madosky, Mr. Nahon, Dr. James, Dr. Carver, and Dr. Rushin. Motion carried unanimously.

The board instructed the executive to send the revised survey and corresponding cover memorandum to each member for input or revision.
