SENDER'S RECORD

Dear CALBERT, JANA M:

The Missouri Department of Revenue has notified this agency that you are not in compliance with section 324.010 RSMo, which requires the suspension of the professional license of individuals who have failed to file state tax returns and/or pay their state tax liabilities. You should have already received a letter from the Department of Revenue notifying you that you are not currently in compliance with Missouri state tax law. If you did not receive the Department of Revenue's letter, call the Department of Revenue immediately at (573)751-7200.

Your license will be suspended on June 28, 2008 unless you resolve this issue with the Department of Revenue. You can reach the Department of Revenue at (573)751-7200.

Again, unless you resolve this issue with the Department of Revenue prior to June 28, 2008, your license will be suspended and you will not be able to practice your profession again until after you receive a letter of compliance from the Department of Revenue and receive clearance from the Board of Cosmetology & Barber Examiners to resume practice.

This agency cannot intervene with the Department of Revenue on your behalf. You must resolve your tax issues directly with the Department of Revenue at (573)751-7200.

Sincerely yours,

Darla L. Fox
Executive Director
