FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, AND DISCIPLINARY ORDER

On or about January 7, 2014, the Administrative Hearing Commission entered its Default Decision in the case of Missouri Board of Cosmetology and Barber Examiners v. Jessica Jones, Case No. 13-1812 CB. In that Default Decision, the Administrative Hearing Commission found that Respondent Jessica Jones' cosmetology operator license (license # 112977) and her cosmetology establishment license (license # 2007011642) are subject to disciplinary action by the Missouri Board Cosmetology and Barber Examiners ("Board") pursuant to § 329.140.2(5), (6) and (13), RSMo.¹

The Board has received and reviewed the record of the proceedings before the Administrative Hearing Commission, including the properly pled complaint filed before the Administrative Hearing Commission on October 18, 2013 and the Default Decision of the Administrative Hearing Commission. The record of the Administrative Hearing Commission, including the properly pled complaint and Default Decision, is incorporated herein by reference in its entirety.

Pursuant to notice and § 621.110 and § 329.140.3, RSMo, the Board scheduled a hearing to be held on June 2, 2014, at approximately 9:00 a.m. at the Drury Plaza Hotel Chesterfield, 355

¹ All statutory references are to Missouri Revised Statutes 2000, as amended, unless otherwise indicated.

Chesterfield Center East, Chesterfield, Missouri 63017, for the purpose of determining the appropriate disciplinary action against Jones' licenses. The Board rescheduled the hearing at the Division of Professional Registration, 3605 Missouri Blvd., Jefferson City, Missouri 65102 for October 26, 2014, at approximately 1:00 p.m. The Board was represented by attorney Scott Evans. Despite proper and timely notice, Respondent was not present for the hearing and was not represented by counsel. After being present and considering all of the evidence presented during the hearing, the Board issues the following Findings of Facts, Conclusions of Law and Order

Based upon the foregoing the Board hereby states:

I.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The Board is an agency of the state of Missouri created and established pursuant to § 329.015, RSMo, for the purpose of licensing all persons engaged in the practice of barbering and cosmetology in this state. The Board has control and supervision of the licensed occupations and enforcement of the terms and provisions of Chapters 328 and 329, RSMo.

2. Respondent holds a cosmetology establishment license (license # 2007011642) for Creative Hair Design. Respondent's establishment license was not at all times relevant herein, and is now, current and active through September 30, 2015, and was reinstated on May 9, 2014. Respondent also holds a cosmetology operator license (license # 112977). Respondent's operator license was not at all times relevant herein, and is now, current and active through September 30, 2015, and was reinstated on May 9, 2014.

3. The Board hereby adopts and incorporates by reference the properly pled complaint and Default Decision of the Administrative Hearing Commission in Missouri Board of Cosmetology and Barber Examiners v. Jessica Jones, Case No. 13-1812 CB, in its entirety. In that Default Decision the Administrative Hearing Commission determined that the Board filed a properly pled complaint before the Administrative Hearing Commission on or about October 18,

2013, that Respondent was personally served with the complaint and that Respondent never filed an answer or otherwise responded to the complaint.

4. In its Default Decision, the Administrative Hearing Commission determined there was cause to discipline Respondent's licenses pursuant to § 329.140.2(5), (6) and (13), RSMo, as established in the properly pled complaint, as a result of Respondent's offering and performing cosmetology services for compensation without holding a valid Missouri license and operating a cosmetology establishment known as Creative Hair Design without a cosmetology establishment license.

5. The Board set this matter for disciplinary hearing and served notice of the disciplinary hearing upon Respondent in a proper and timely fashion.
