ORDER OF THE MISSOURI STATE BOARD OF COSMETOLOGY AND BARBER
EXAMINERS ISSUING A PROBATIONARY CLASS MO - MANICURIST
COSMETOLOGY STUDENT LICENSE TO LYNDSIE M. HAY

The Missouri State Board of Cosmetology and Barber Examiners (the "Board") hereby issues its ORDER granting a PROBATIONARY CLASS MO – MANICURIST COSMETOLOGY STUDENT LICENSE, License No. 2016005632 to Lyndsie M. Hay ("Hay" or "Applicant"), pursuant to the provisions of § 324.038, RSMo.¹ As set forth in § 324.038.2, RSMo, Hay may submit a written request to the Administrative Hearing Commission seeking a hearing and review of the Board's decision to issue a probated student license. Such written request must be filed with the Administrative Hearing Commission within 30 days of delivery or mailing of this Order of the Board. The written request should be addressed to the Administrative Hearing Commission, P.O. Box 1557, Truman State Office Building, Room 640, Jefferson City, MO 65102-1557. If no written request for review is filed with the Administrative Hearing Commission within the 30-day period, the right to seek review of the Board's decision shall be considered waived. Should Hay file a written request for review of this Order, the terms and conditions of this Order shall remain in force and effect unless and/or until such time as the Administrative Hearing Commission issues an Order to the contrary.

Based upon the foregoing, the Board hereby states:

¹ All statutory references are to Missouri Revised Statutes 2000, as amended, unless otherwise indicated.

I.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The Board is an agency of the state of Missouri created and established pursuant to § 329.015, RSMo, for the purpose of licensing all persons engaged in the practice of barbering and cosmetology in this state. The Board has control and supervision of the licensed occupations and enforcement of the terms and provisions of Chapters 328 and 329, RSMo.

2. On or about February 11, 2016, Hay applied for a Missouri Class MO - manicurist cosmetology student license to enroll at Merrell University of Beauty Arts & Science, 1101 Southwest Blvd., Jefferson City, Missouri.

3. On her application, Hay answered “yes” to the question “Have you been finally adjudicated and found guilty, or entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, in a criminal prosecution in this state, or any or of the United States, whether or not sentence was imposed?”

4. In conjunction with her February 11, 2016 application, Hay provided an explanation of her criminal history. In her explanation, Hay stated that she was going through post-partum depression after the birth of her son during her senior year in high school. She recalled that she found that her son’s father had cheated on her and became “very angry and upset.” Hay stated that she vandalized the father’s vehicle. She noted that all damages have since been paid.

5. A review of Hay’s (f.k.a.: Lyndsie Marie Armstrong) criminal history revealed that on or about March 12, 2008, Hay pled guilty to the class B misdemeanor of Property Damage – 2nd Degree, in the circuit court of Audrain County, case number 08U1-CR00013. The Court sentenced Hay to ninety days’ incarceration in the county jail, suspended execution of sentence, and placed Hay on two years unsupervised probation.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

6. The Board has authority to deny or refuse a license application pursuant to § 329.140.1, RSMo, which provides:

The board may refuse to issue any certificate of registration or authority, permit or license required pursuant to this chapter for one or any combination of causes stated in subsection 2 of this section. The board shall notify the applicant in writing of the reasons for the refusal and shall advise the applicant of his right to file a complaint with the administrative hearing commission as provided by chapter 621, RSMo.

7. The Board has cause to deny or refuse Hay's application for a Class MO - manicurist cosmetology student license pursuant to § 329.140.2, RSMo, which provides:

The board may cause a complaint to be filed with the administrative hearing commission as provided by chapter 621, RSMo, against any holder of any certificate of registration or authority, permit or license required by this chapter or any person who has failed to renew or has surrendered the person's certificate of registration or authority, permit or license for any one or any combination of the following causes:

(2) The person has been finally adjudicated and found guilty, or entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, in a criminal prosecution under the laws of any state or of the United States, for any offense reasonably related to the qualifications, functions or duties of any profession licensed or regulated under this chapter, for any offense an essential element of which is fraud, dishonesty or an act of violence, or for any offense involving moral turpitude, whether or not sentence is imposed[.]

8. As a result of Hay's guilty pleas as detailed in paragraph 5, the Board has cause to deny or refuse Hay's application for a Class MO - manicurist cosmetology student license pursuant to § 329.140.1, RSMo, and § 329.140.2(2), RSMo.

9. As an alternative to refusing to issue a license, the Board may, at its discretion, issue a license subject to probation, pursuant to § 324.038, RSMo, which provides:

Whenever a board within or assigned to the division of professional registration, including the division itself when so empowered, may refuse to issue a license for reasons which also serve as a basis for filing a complaint with the administrative hearing commission seeking disciplinary action against a holder of a license, the board, as an alternative to refusing to issue a license, may, at its discretion, issue to an applicant a license subject to probation.

10. The Board issues this Order in lieu of denial of Hay's application for a Class MO - manicurist cosmetology student license. The Board has determined that this Order is necessary to ensure the protection of the public.
