The Missouri State Board of Cosmetology and Barber Examiners (the "Board") hereby issues its ORDER granting a PROBATIONARY COSMETOLOGY STUDENT LICENSE, License No. 2016005634 to Amanda Stillwell ("Stillwell" or "Applicant"), pursuant to the provisions of § 324.038, RSMo.¹ As set forth in § 324.038.2, RSMo, Stillwell may submit a written request to the Administrative Hearing Commission seeking a hearing and review of the Board's decision to issue a probated student license. Such written request must be filed with the Administrative Hearing Commission within 30 days of delivery or mailing of this Order of the Board. The written request should be addressed to the Administrative Hearing Commission, P.O. Box 1557, Truman State Office Building, Room 640, Jefferson City, MO 65102-1557. If no written request for review is filed with the Administrative Hearing Commission within the 30-day period, the right to seek review of the Board's decision shall be considered waived. Should Stillwell file a written request for review of this Order, the terms and conditions of this Order shall remain in force and effect unless and/or until such time as the Administrative Hearing Commission issues an Order to the contrary.

Based upon the foregoing, the Board hereby states:

I.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The Board is an agency of the state of Missouri created and established pursuant to § 329.015, RSMo, for the purpose of licensing all persons engaged in the practice of barbering and cosmetology in this state. The Board has control and supervision of the licensed occupations and enforcement of the terms and provisions of Chapters 328 and 329, RSMo.

2. On or about December 15, 2015, Stillwell applied for a Missouri cosmetology student license to enroll at Seymour Beauty Academy, Seymour, Missouri.

3. On her application, Stillwell answered “yes” to the question “Have you been finally adjudicated and found guilty, or entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, in a criminal prosecution in this state, or any or of the United States, whether or not sentence was imposed?”

4. In conjunction with her December 15, 2015 application, Stillwell provided an explanation of her criminal history. In her explanation, Stillwell stated that in 2011, she was under the influence of drugs and her boyfriend broke into a trailer and stole a steam cleaner. She noted that she took the blame for the theft. She recalled that she served thirty (30) days in jail and was placed on probation, paid fines and ordered to perform community service. Stillwell stated that when she was eighteen years old she became sexual active with her fourteen year old friend. She noted that the friend later turned her in when she refused to buy him cigarettes. She recalled that she served fifteen days in jail, placed on probation, ordered to perform community service and paid a fine.

5. A review of Stillwell’s criminal history reveals:

- a. On or about June 5, 2012, Stillwell pled guilty to the class C felony of Burglary – 2nd Degree, in the Circuit Court of Warren County, Missouri, case number 11BB-

CR00810-01. The Court suspended imposition of sentence and placed Stillwell on five years' probation.

The Court suspended execution of sentence and placed Stillwell on two years' probation.

Whenever a board within or assigned to the division of professional registration, including the division itself when so empowered, may refuse to issue a license for reasons which also serve as a basis for filing a complaint with the administrative hearing commission seeking disciplinary action against a holder of a license, the board, as an alternative to refusing to issue a license, may, at its discretion, issue to an applicant a license subject to probation.
