

I.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The Board is an agency of the state of Missouri created and established pursuant to § 329.015, RSMo, for the purpose of licensing all persons engaged in the practice of barbering and cosmetology in this state. The Board has control and supervision of the licensed occupations and enforcement of the terms and provisions of Chapters 328 and 329, RSMo.

2. On or about February 3, 2015, Williams applied for a Missouri student cosmetology license to enroll at the Academy of Salon Professionals, 2414 S. Limit Avenue, Sedalia, Missouri.

3. On his application, Williams answered “yes” to the question “Have you been adjudicated and found guilty, or entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, in a criminal prosecution in this state or of the United States, whether or not sentence was imposed?”

4. With his February 3, 2015 application, Williams provided an explanation of his criminal history. In his explanation, Williams stated that he was convicted of two 1st Degree Robberies in 1996, and was sentenced to twenty-five years in prison. He attributed his actions to poor choices and drug and alcohol addiction. Williams asserted that while in prison he sought to “turn [his] life around” and that he became a “model inmate.” Williams stated that while incarcerated, he started barbering. He indicated that his service as a barber has given him “purpose in [his] life” and allows him to provide a useful service to others. In a subsequent written explanation, Williams noted that his initial incarceration did not detour him from a “destructive lifestyle.” Williams admitted that after 17 months of incarceration he received an additional five years’ incarceration for an escape from prison. Williams indicated that he was apologetic to his victims; wants to help others and does not want to “take life for granted.”

Williams stated that he was released from incarceration in January of 2015. He acknowledged that going to school at age 44 will “have its challenges” but he noted that he is “determined to become a professional.”

5. A review of Williams’ Missouri criminal history reveals:
 - a. On or about March 13, 1997, Williams pled guilty to the class A felony of Robbery-1st Degree, in the Circuit Court of Jasper County, Missouri, case number 29R059602228-01. The Court sentenced Williams to 20 years’ incarceration.
 - b. On or about January 21, 1998, Williams pled guilty to the class A felony of Robbery-1st Degree, in the Circuit Court of Newton County, Missouri, case number CR496-2063FX. The Court sentenced Williams to 20 years’ incarceration.
 - c. On or about November 7, 2009, Williams was found guilty by jury verdict of the class B felony of Delivery Or Possession Of Weapon At A Correctional Facility, in the Circuit Court of Newton County, Missouri, case number CR496-2063FX/01CR325661. The Court sentenced Williams to 5 years’ incarceration to run concurrent with any other sentences he may be serving.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

6. § 329.140.1, RSMo, which provides:

The board may refuse to issue any certificate of registration or authority, permit or license required pursuant to this chapter for one or any combination of causes stated in subsection 2 of this section. The board shall notify the applicant in writing of the reasons for the refusal and shall advise the applicant of his right to file a complaint with the administrative hearing commission as provided by chapter 621, RSMo.

7. The Board has cause to deny or refuse Williams' application for a cosmetology student license pursuant to § 329.140.2, RSMo, which provides:

The board may cause a complaint to be filed with the administrative hearing commission as provided by chapter 621, RSMo, against any holder of any certificate of registration or authority, permit or license required by this chapter or any person who has failed to renew or has surrendered the person's certificate of registration or authority, permit or license for any one or any combination of the following causes:

(2) The person has been finally adjudicated and found guilty, or entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, in a criminal prosecution under the laws of any state or of the United States, for any offense reasonably related to the qualifications, functions or duties of any profession licensed or regulated under this chapter, for any offense an essential element of which is fraud, dishonesty or an act of violence, or for any offense involving moral turpitude, whether or not sentence is imposed[.]

As a result of Williams' pleas of guilty as detailed in paragraph 5 a and b above, and his finding of guilt by jury in paragraph 5 c, the Board has cause to deny or refuse Williams' application for a cosmetology student license pursuant to § 329.140.1, RSMo, and § 329.140.2(2), RSMo.

8. As an alternative to refusing to issue a license, the Board may, at its discretion, issue a license subject to probation, pursuant to § 324.038, RSMo, which provides:

Whenever a board within or assigned to the division of professional registration, including the division itself when so empowered, may refuse to issue a license for reasons which also serve as a basis for filing a complaint with the administrative hearing commission seeking disciplinary action against a holder of a license, the board, as an alternative to refusing to issue a license, may, at its discretion, issue to an applicant a license subject to probation.

9. The Board issues this Order in lieu of denial of Williams' application for a cosmetology student license. The Board has determined that this Order is necessary to ensure the protection of the public.
