Proposed Legislation

Board President Wayne Kindle asked the Board if there was interest in pursuing legislation allowing hair braiders to complete 300 training hours followed by the national written and practical examination. The Board members opinions were as follows:

Wayne Kindle	aye	Betty Leake	nay
Kim Marshall	nay	Leata Price-Land	nay
Jacklyn Crow	nay	Joe Nicholson	nay

Connie Clarkston advised the Board that the timeframe available would not allow for drafting new language to pursue for 2011. Further if they Board wishes to pursue anything for 2011 the Board would have to submit language that previously was approved by the Division, as well as, the Department and Governor's Office. Connie further advised at this time the Governor's directive is to only pursue proposals for issues that are big problems and need an immediate solution. The goes the saying is Big Problems, Big Solutions.

The Board then discussed the potential for drafting new language for 2012. Further the Board determined to not submit any legislative proposals for 2011. The Board will schedule to meet with all Missouri Cosmetology Associations and draft new legislation to propose for 2012.
