Patti Wanamaker

Educator

Patti Wanamaker currently serves as an Academic Trainer for Milady. She is responsible for delivering academic and business programs for the Cosmetology Industry. Her intimate understanding of the salon/school/beauty industry comes from 17 years of hands-on experience, includes 8 years of salon/spa ownership, co-owner and co-manager of three salon locations with an annual sales of $5 million. She has 6 years experience as a multi-faceted, training specialist within the industry, specializing in customer relations, increasing the bottom line and creating client loyalty.

Her experience in all three areas of our industry creates a well-rounded background as a trainer.

Ida McLean

Educator

Ida is a licensed cosmetologist and cosmetology instructor. She currently works for Arthur's Beauty College Corporate Office located in Jacksonville, AR. She began as an Instructor and quickly moved into the School Supervisor position. As the company has grown to include four campuses, Ida has taken on a wide scope of responsibilities and moved into administration. She has fulfilled each task encountered with energy, enthusiasm and dedication.

On average, Ida completes at least 50 hours of professional development training every year. Teaching is one of Ida's greatest passions, and that passion is reflected in all her classroom presentations.
