RECIPROCITY

Q. I am licensed in another state. How can I get licensed in Missouri?
A. The commission may issue a certificate or license to an individual who is certified or licensed in a state, provided the commission is furnished verification that the appraiser is in good standing, the state the appraiser is coming from is in compliance with the Appraisal Subcommittee (ASC), and the credentialing requirements of that state (as they currently exist) meet or exceed those of the reciprocal credential state (as they currently exist). Please visit http://pr.mo.gov/appraisers-reciprocity-applications.asp

TEMPORARY LICENSE

Q. How do I get a temporary license?
A. You must be in good standing on the National Registry of the Appraisal Subcommittee (http://www.asc.gov). You are not required to submit a letter of good standing from your state. At this time, the Commission charges a $150 fee for a temporary license. NOTE: Temporary practice approval will not be granted retroactively. Please visit http://pr.mo.gov/appraisers-temporary-practice.asp

CONTINUING EDUCATION

Q. How much continuing education do I need to renew my license?
A. Twenty-eight (28) hours of continuing education every two years are required. All licenses will expire June 30 of the even number years. Missouri requires that real estate appraisers complete a minimum seven (7) hour course on the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (USPAP) Update. Appraisers must complete a USPAP update course during each renewal period.

Q. Do I need to send in my continuing education certificates?
A. No. DO NOT SEND your certificates with your renewal form. The Commission may contact you for copies of your certificates upon being selected for a continuing education audit.

COMPLAINT

Q. How do I file a complaint?
A. Under Complaint Forms complete and submit to the address on the form. Please include any appraisal reports or other paperwork that may be of assistance to the Commission in its investigation. You will be notified of the decision of the Commission in regards to the complaint. NOTE: Members of the Commission review all complaints that are received. The Complaint process is lengthy, and you may not receive the Commission’s decision for several months.

Please call the office at (573) 751-0038 for further questions.
