

I.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The Board is an agency of the state of Missouri created and established pursuant to § 329.015, RSMo, for the purpose of licensing all persons engaged in the practice of barbering and cosmetology in this state. The Board has control and supervision of the licensed occupations and enforcement of the terms and provisions of Chapters 328 and 329, RSMo.

2. On or about March 16, 2015, Murray applied for a Missouri student cosmetology license to enroll at the New Dimensions School of Hair Design, 621 Kentucky Avenue, Joplin, Missouri.

3. On her application, Murray answered "yes" to the question "Have you been adjudicated and found guilty, or entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, in a criminal prosecution in this state or of the United States, whether or not sentence was imposed?"

4. With her March 16, 2015 application, Murray provided an explanation of her criminal history. In her explanation, Murray stated that she took her house key to an ex-boyfriend's car and paid restitution for the damage. She recalled that she was charged with "theft" for attempting to take cologne from a Wal-Mart, but that the charge was subsequently dropped. Murray asserted that a multiple charge case involving a physical fight with another female resulted in a battery charge. Finally, she stated that she had a theft conviction stemming from an incident at a JC Penney's store, where a friend placed merchandise in a diaper bag and gave it to Murray to take to the car. Murray asserted she was unaware that the merchandise had been concealed in the diaper bag. Murray noted that she has stayed out of trouble since and hopes to improve her life.

5. A review of Murray's criminal history reveals that:

- a. On or about September 14, 2011, Murray pled guilty to the class B misdemeanor charge of Criminal Damage to Property, in the Municipal Court of Saline County, Kansas, case number 2011-5987. The Court fined Murray $575;
- b. On or about August 12, 2011, Murray was found guilty in the amended class B nonperson misdemeanor charge of Criminal Damage to Property, the class B person misdemeanor of Battery and class A nonperson misdemeanor of Obstructing Official Duty, in the District Court of Saline County, Kansas, case number 11CR561. The Court sentenced Murray to 6 months in the Saline County Jail, suspended sentence and placed Murray on supervised probation for a period of 12 months plus costs and fees;
- c. On or about March 29, 2012, Murray was found guilty in the class A misdemeanor charge of Theft, in the Municipal Court of Saline County, Kansas, case number 2012CRM65. The Court sentenced Murray to 60 days jail time, suspended sentence and find Murray $175.
