v.	)	Case No. 97-0001904 PC
PATRICK N. FARLEY 1110 South Ninth Street Princeton, WV 24140 Respondent.	)

FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND DISCIPLINARY ORDER

This matter appears before the Committee for Professional Counselors following the issuance of the Memorandum and Order by the Administrative Hearing Commission on September 30, 1997, which found that Patrick N. Farley's license as a professional counselor was subject to disciplinary action pursuant to the provisions of Section 337.525.2(2), (4), (5), and (13) RSMo 1994.

Findings of Fact

1. The Administrative Hearing Commission is an agency of the State of Missouri created and established pursuant to §621.105, RSMo 1994, for the purpose of conducting hearings and issuing orders in cases in which disciplinary action may be taken against a professional license by certain state agencies, including the Committee for Professional Counselors.

2. The Committee for Professional Counselors ("Committee") is an agency of the state of Missouri created and established pursuant to § 337.535, RSMo 1994, for the purpose of executing and enforcing the provisions of § 337.500 to 337.540 RSMo.

3. The Administrative Hearing Commission issued its Memorandum and Order on September 30, 1997.

4. The Administrative Hearing Commission certified the record of the proceedings before it to the Committee for Professional Counselors on September 30, 1997.

5. The Administrative Hearing Commission found that Patrick N. Farley is subject to discipline under Section 337.525.2(2), (4), (5) and (13), RSMo.

6. The Committee has received the record of the proceedings before the Administrative Hearing Commission including the Memorandum and Order.

7. The Committee set this matter for disciplinary hearing on October 25, 1997, and served notice of the disciplinary hearing upon Patrick N. Farley in a proper and timely manner.

8. Pursuant to notice and §621.110, RSMo 1994, this Committee held a hearing on October 25, 1997, at the Truman State Office Building, Jefferson City, Missouri, for the purpose of determining the appropriate disciplinary action against the professional counselor license of Patrick N. Farley. Mr. Farley was present at this hearing but was not represented by counsel.

9. Committee members, Dr. Mark Comensky, Dr. Christopher Maglio, Angela Cass, Dorothy McGuffin and Rosie Fischer, were present throughout the disciplinary hearing. Further, each member of the Committee that was present had read the Memorandum and Order issued by the Administrative Hearing Commission.

10. Patrick N. Farley ("Respondent" or "Licensee") is licensed by the Committee as a professional counselor, License No. CS001853. Respondent's Missouri license is current and active and was current and active at the time of the conviction which formed the basis for the charges.

11. The Memorandum and Order of the Administrative Hearing Commission is incorporated herein by reference.

12. Springhaven, Inc. ("Springhaven") was the West Virginia facility which provided professional psychiatric, psychological and counseling services where Farley was employed as a counselor.

13. While an employee of Springhaven, both the facility and Respondent participated in the United States Government's Medicaid Program ("Medicaid"), which relied on him to bill honestly for his services. From January 1992 to May 1994, Farley:

a. Prepared service tickets listing dates and patients for sessions in which no services were actually provided;
b. Gave those service tickets to an administrative employee to prepare false invoices to Medicaid for payment; and
c. Supported the false invoices by drafting false patient progress notes.

14. Farley's compensation during the time he was employed at the facility was based on a percentage of fees actually collected.

15. Respondent pleaded guilty to one count of mail fraud in violation of 18 U.S.C. §1341 and 18 U.S.C. §2 in the United States District Court, Southern District of West Virginia, United States v. Farley, Case No. 1:96CR00089-001 (Dec. 2, 1966).

16. The United States District Court, Southern District of West Virginia (Court), had adopted guideline levels for sentencing and the applicable range of probation within those guidelines for Respondent's offense was one to five years.

17. The Court found that Farley had abused a position of public or private trust.

18. Respondent was sentenced to five years probation.

19. Respondent was also sentenced to serve a six-month term of home confinement and ordered to pay restitution of $9,266.00.

20. Medicaid paid money to Springhaven based on the fraudulent invoices. Farley received 60 percent of the money that Springhaven collected based on his billing amounts.

Conclusions Of Law

A professional counselor's license may be disciplined pursuant to § 337.525.2, RSMo 1994, which provides, in pertinent part:

2. The committee may cause a complaint to be filed with the administrative hearing commission as provided by chapter 621, RSMo, against any holder of any certificate of registration or authority, permit or license required by this chapter or any person who has failed to renew or has surrendered his certificate of registration or authority, permit or license for any one or any combination of the following causes:

(2) The person has been finally adjudicated and found guilty, or entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, in a criminal prosecution under the laws of any state or of the United States, for any offense reasonably related to the qualifications, functions or duties of a professional counselor; for any offense an essential element of which is fraud, dishonesty or an act of violence; or for any offense involving moral turpitude, whether or not sentence is imposed;

. . . .

(4) Obtaining or attempting to obtain any fee, charge, tuition or other compensation by fraud, deception or misrepresentation;

(5) . . . misconduct . . . in the performance of the functions or duties of any profession licensed or regulated by this chapter;

. . . .

(13) Violation of any professional trust or confidence;

. . . .

21. Farley's conviction is reasonably related to the functions and duties of a licensed professional counselor because the underlying acts were committed under the guise of his profession.

22. Farley's conviction and the underlying conduct constitute a conviction for an offense involving moral turpitude.

23. Farley was convicted of an offense reasonably related to the qualifications, functions or duties of a professional counselor, an essential element of which is fraud or dishonesty.

24. Farley obtained a fee, charge or other compensation by fraud, deception or misrepresentation.

25. Farley engaged in misconduct when he failed to bill honestly for his professional services.

26. A licensed professional counselor has a relationship of professional trust or confidence with his clients and with Medicaid.

27. Farley violated a professional trust or confidence by submitting false invoices, preparing false patient progress notes and by defrauding Medicaid.

28. Cause exists for Petitioner to take disciplinary action against Farley's professional counselor's license pursuant to § 337.035.2(2), (4), (5), and (13), RSMo 1994.

II

DISCIPLINARY ORDER

In light of the foregoing findings of facts and conclusions of law, the following disciplinary action is to be imposed against License No. CS001853 effective the date of this order.

1. The Professional Counselor License, License No. CS001853, of Patrick R. Farley is suspended for a period of one year.

2. Immediately following the termination of the period of suspension, Respondent's license is placed on probation for a period of five years.

3. The terms of the disciplinary period are stated below.

A. Respondent must renew his license annually and meet the requirements to maintain his license.

B. Respondent must keep the Committee apprised at all times in writing of his current home and work addresses and telephone numbers.

C. Respondent is required to pay all fees required by law to renew and keep current his professional counselor's license in Missouri.

D. Respondent shall meet with the Committee at his expense at a time and place designated by the Committee to discuss how Respondent has complied with the disciplinary order.

E. Respondent is required to comply with all provisions of §337.500 to §337.540, RSMo, the rules and regulations duly promulgated by the Committee for Professional Counselors, and all state and federal laws.

F. If disciplinary conditions are not being met, Respondent must submit a report immediately describing the problems and a plan to correct the problems. The Committee reserves the right to reject the plan and to implement corrective measures.

G. Respondent may not serve as a supervisor for any counseling trainee, counseling intern, counseling resident, counseling assistant, counselor-in-training, provisional licensed professional counselor, or any person undergoing supervision.

H. Respondent must inform the state regulatory agencies or other appropriate agency in any other state in which he is licensed that he is under discipline in the state of Missouri.

I. During the period of suspension, Respondent shall not practice counseling as defined in Chapter 337.

J. During the probationary period, Respondent's practice as a professional counselor shall be supervised by a licensed professional counselor, licensed psychologist, or psychiatrist approved by the Committee.

(1) At least sixty days before the end of the period of suspension, licensee shall submit a list of three to five (3-5) proposed licensed professional counselors, licensed psychologists, or psychiatrists to supervise Respondent's practice as a professional counselor. The Committee may approve a supervisor from this list or may require a second list of three to five (3-5) potential supervisors which the licensee shall submit within twenty business days of the Committee's request.

(2) Supervision includes full order and control of Respondent's practice of professional counseling by the Supervisor. Full order and control includes, but is not limited to, face-to-face meetings twice a month for the first year of the probationary period and monthly meetings thereafter for the remainder of the probationary period. Topics for discussion during supervision include case consultation, case management and control.

(3) The supervisor must additionally co-sign all reports and case notes and provide documentation that a review has occurred.

(4) Respondent shall be responsible for any payment associated with the supervision.

(5) The designated supervisor shall submit quarterly progress reports to the Committee. The Supervisor shall answer questions submitted by the Committee. Reports will address:

(a) The dates and types of contracts between supervisor and Respondent,
(b) Interruptions of supervision due to vacations or illness,
(c) progress by Respondent,
(d) Readings and education or training completed by Respondent,
(e) Any problems in meeting these requirements, resistance by Respondent, and the possible impairment of Respondent,
(f) Supervisory plan, goals achieved, and prognosis, and
(g) Recommendation of supervisor.

(6) The Committee retains the right to determine and, if necessary, change the content of the questions on the report.

(7) Respondent is responsible for assuring the reports are submitted at the designated time; however, the reports are to be sent directly from the supervisor to the Committee. These reports are to be original signed narratives. Respondent is responsible for the supervisor meeting the specified deadlines. If the supervisor fails to submit a report by the deadline, the Committee shall notify Respondent. Respondent shall not be in violation of this provision unless no report has been received within 30 days of Respondent being notified.

K. In the event the supervisor becomes unable or unwilling to continue service in his/her capacity as a supervisor or otherwise ceases to serve as a supervisor during the period of probation, the Respondent shall:

a) Within three business days of being notified of the supervisor's inability or decision not to continue serving as the supervisor, advise the Committee in writing that he needs to secure a supervisor and the reasons for such change; and

b) Within twenty days of being notified of the supervisor's inability or unwillingness to continue serving as supervisor or otherwise learning of the need to secure a supervisor, submit names of three to five (3-5) proposed replacement supervisors to the Committee pursuant to and in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in this Order. After twenty days, the Respondent shall not practice professional counseling if he has not submitted such names.

L. In any professional activities in which Respondent is involved, all individuals whom Respondent treats, evaluates, consults, or provides services to must agree to allow their treatment records to be reviewed by the Committee or its representatives. The supervisor is responsible for obtaining consent for the release of information concerning accessibility to client records. The Respondent may not use the privilege of confidentiality to evade this condition of the disciplinary order.

M. Respondent must inform supervisors, employers and co-therapists that he is under probation and supervision. Proof of such disclosure must be filed in the appropriate records.

N. Pursuant to term 3(D) above and at the committee's discretion and prior to the completion of probation, the Respondent must appear before the committee to discuss with the committee as to how the Respondent has completed the terms of this Order and is ready to practice without further conditions of probation. This appearance will be a minimum of six months prior to the end of probation so that problem areas may be addressed and a remediation plan can be discussed.

4. If at any time after these disciplinary sanctions have been imposed Respondent does not reside and work in the state of Missouri, the discipline shall be tolled and the time of his absence from the state of Missouri shall not be deemed as any part of the time of discipline.

5. Upon the expiration of the disciplinary period, Respondent's license as a licensed professional counselor in Missouri shall be fully restored, provided all provisions of this Order and all other requirements of law have been satisfied.

6. If the Committee determines that Respondent has violated a term or condition of his discipline, or has otherwise failed to comply with a provision of §337.500 to §337.540, RSMo, which violation would be actionable in a proceeding before the Committee, the Administrative Hearing Commission, or a circuit court, the Committee may elect to pursue any lawful remedies or procedures afforded to it, and is not bound by this order in the selection of remedies concerning such violation.

7. The Committee for Professional Counselors will maintain this Order as an open record of the Committee as provided in Chapters 337, 610, and 620 RSMo.

Dear Loree:

Enclosed, as per your request, are the wall hanging and the 5 X 7 Missouri licenses. I intend to adhere to the Final Decision of the Committee and, therefore, will work aggressively toward fulfillment of the requirements for my license to be reinstated. I will contact you in January, 1999, to ensure the Committee is informed of the completion of the suspension. At that time, I will obtain any other information needed to initiate supervision.

I hope to move to Missouri this Fall and if so, I will notify you of any change in my address. Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Dear Loree:

In an effort to be as proactive as possible as it relates to my license being reinstated, I am unclear about some directives as outlined in the DISCIPLINARY ORDER. First, should I go ahead and send the fees for 1998, as the Order indicates I must renew my license annually, meet requirements to maintain the license, and to pay all fees to renew and keep the license current? If so, please send, if possible, some type of invoice so I can appropriately send the fee to the Committee.

As it relates to Section 3.J.1, 60 days before the end of the suspension, I am to submit a list a list of 3-5 proposed supervisors. In all probability, I will not be able to initiate the process of contacting potential supervisors until shortly after January 1, 1999. As you can see, this is in conflict with the Order and I want to make sure this will not cause any problems with the Committee.

Please be advised my work situation has changed and my work address and telephone number are the same as above.

I will contact you again, if not sooner, then in January 1999, to ensure the Committee is informed of the completion of the suspension that is to occur on February 7, 1999. At that time, I will obtain any other information needed to initiate supervision.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Pat N. Farley, Ed.D.

Dear Dr. Farley:

I apologize for the delay in responding to your letter regarding the disciplinary status of your license.

The committee convened November 6-7 at which time your request was reviewed. By now, you should have received your renewal form. Payment is due no later than February 28, 1999.

Concerning the supervision the committee determined there is no substantial justification to amend the order. You must comply with the requirement concerning proposed supervisors or provide detailed information why you cannot do so.

Your attention to this matter is appreciated.

Dear Dr. Farley:

The committee is preparing for the annual license renewal and as matter of maintaining your file, the committee requested a letter be sent to you regarding your relocation to Missouri.

You may recall that you had sent a letter to the committee in January of 1999 concerning the discipline. It is the committee's understanding that you have yet to relocate to this state. Therefore, the suspension has not been in effect until moving to this state. Then one year after relocating, the probationary period would be in place requiring a list of supervisors be sent to the committee at least 60 days in advance of proceeding with your practice.

Thank you for keeping the committee apprised of your progress. Your renewal will be sent to your Virginia address within the next two weeks.
