#D1 State FDA MOU Response
- Solutions Pharmacy Response

DISCUSSION: Kimberly Grinston reported the Board’s draft response is being reviewed by the Governor’s office and has been shared with the Board of Healing Arts. Discussion was held.

#D2A Revision of 20 CSR 2220-2.020 Review of prescription drug physical examination requirements.
- Emergency Rule
- Amended Rule
- Missouri Telehealth Summary
- CDC Guidance
DISCUSSION: Kimberly Grinston reported on her contact with the Board of Healing Arts and the Board of Nursing. Discussion was held. Kimberly Grinston requested approval to file the physical examination language as an emergency rule and to file a regular rule amendment that addresses the remaining rule changes. Tom Glenski asked if “as required by law” means Missouri law or other state laws. Kimberly Grinston explained the Board currently allows Missouri pharmacies to dispense based on other states’ laws.

Barbara Bilek asked if the Board of Healing Arts has a list of doctors that are licensed in the U.S. but practicing in a foreign country and expressed concerns regarding the applicability of foreign law. Discussion was held. Barbara Bilek suggested the proposal should be limited to practitioner’s licensed “to prescribe drugs” that have met the “physical examination and clinical assessment” requirements. Kimberly Grinston commented American Well is the entity that has filed a written request for review by the Board and also provided information regarding the ECHO telehealth program operating in the state. Kimberly Grinston reported the Missouri legislature reviewed a “store and forward” proposal during the past session that was not enacted. Board consensus to table the matter for further review at the July 2015 meeting.
